THE "JIM CROW" CAR.

(BY REV. WALTER H. BROOKS, D. D.

This too is done to crush me, But naught can keep us back; 'My place,' forsooth, a section

'Twixt' smoker, front and back, While others ride in coaches Full large and filled with light, And this our Southern Christians Insist is just and right.

There Yellow man from China,

And Red man from the plain, Are seated with the White man, But I could not remain. However clean my person. My linen and my life, They snarl: "Your k-yar shead, Jim Go thar and take, your wife,' We're singled out from others, A mark for shafts of scorn, Here huddled, like tamed cattle, From early night till morn; The golden rule's rejected, Who cares for such a thing? Do they whose prejudice o'er race Inflict this bitter sting?

This insult almost kills me-God, help me bear the wrong, Well, mine's the story of the weak Who falls before the strong; Who fall-to rise in triumph, When God his sword shall gird. And the proudest evil doer Shall tren ble at His word.

A SHERIFF IN TROUBLE.

Ludierous Effect of "Jim Crow" Car

Lynchburg, Va., September 2nd.— When the east bound passenger train of the Norfolk and Western railroad reached Abungdon this morning, the sheriff of that place boarded the train with eight prisoners, six of them white and two colored. He took them into the car reserved for white people and when the conductor on collecting tickets discovered what had been done, he insisted on the two Negro prisoners being taken into the ear for blacks. As the sheriff could not do this without deserting his white prisoners, he had to leave the train some miles this side of Abingdon, and return to the place whence he started.
